TEN TIPS ON AVOIDING BRAIN FREEZE DURING FRIEZE LONDON

As part of this year's Frize Live schedule, curated by Diana Campbell Betancourt, Priya Ahluwalia the designer behind Ahluwalia Studio has collaborated with Shezad Dawood to create costumes for the artist's newly commissioned multi-layered performance work. Presented by Jhaveri Contemporary and Timothy Taylor, and Supported by The Bagri Foundation, University of NonDualism is a series of collaborations built around an adaptable stage set by Dawood, which takes architect Muzharul Islam's polymathic legacy and approach to non-dualism as a starting point. In addition to Ahluwalia's costumes, Dawood has also enlisted choreographer Adrienne Hart of Neon Dance and electronic music producer patten.
